

Allies Meet In Paris On Berlin Situation

Report No Progress In 3-Power Talks

Paris, Sept. 21—(AP)—The foreign ministers of Britain, the United States and France mapped their next move in the political battle for Berlin at another three-power conference today.

They were believed to be debating whether to toss the explosive issue into the arena of the United Nations.

The ministers ended their meeting after 90 minutes, and a French spokesman said they had reached no final conclusions. They will not meet again until next week, he added.

Ministers May Meet

Subsequently official British sources said they would not rule out the possibility that the three ministers might get together before the weekend if the need to do so arose. There was no immediate explanation of the apparent contradiction between the statements of the British and French officials. An American spokesman could not be reached at once.

The three met at the French in 24 hours after the opening session of the foreign ministry for the second time of the U.N. assembly. Their military and diplomatic experts had spent the day preparing the ground work.

Top Advisors In Conference

When Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman got together they had with them their top advisors from Berlin, Washington and London.

These included John Foster Dulles, Republican party foreign affairs expert, and Charles E. Bohlen, Russian-speaking state department counselor, and Hector McNeill, British member of state.

A special session of the British cabinet was called for 10 a.m. tomorrow to hear Bevin's report on his talks in Paris. The British foreign secretary is returning to London tonight.

He is expected to furnish his cabinet colleagues with an outline of a foreign policy speech he plans to make in the House of Commons late tomorrow.

Interest in the speech centers on how far Bevin will go in disclosing details of the recent negotiations in Moscow between Russia and the Western Powers on the Berlin crisis.

Truman Raps Congress Repeatedly In West

Aboard Truman campaign train in Eastern Utah, Sept. 21—(P)—President Truman struck deeper into the west on a hunt for votes today with word he wants the west developed by "small businessmen" and "not monopolies."

And he suggested that the west's shale oil deposits must be developed because of "alarming" drains on petroleum and gasoline.

Urging the building up of this area, and its resources, in an informal speech at Glenwood Springs, Colo., Mr. Truman said:

"I want small businessmen to develop them, not monopolies."

At Grand Junction, Mr. Truman said he doubted the chairmen of the Senate and House Appropriations committees ever had been west of the Appalachian mountains, and that Congress had cut funds for the west.

He said the chairmen of the Senate Appropriations committee (Sam Bridges, New Hampshire Republican) may have been out here some time, but "he didn't know what he was looking at when he saw it."

More Americans Own Their Homes Than Ever Before

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Despite the clamor over housing, more American families own their own homes now than ever in history, a federal reserve board survey showed today.

About forty-nine per cent of the nation's non-farm families owned their homes at the beginning of this year. That meant 18,500,000 city and town families all together.

The survey did not take up farm families. The proportion of home owners among such families traditionally has been much higher than among city-dwellers.

The number of "home owners," of course, included those still paying on their homes. There was no data on how many have debt-free homes.

The survey showed about 45 per cent of non-farm families—a total of approximately 17,000,000—were renting their living quarters as of 1946. The remainder—about 2,000,000—were living rent free with some body else.

Noting the record proportion of home owners, the reserve board observed that they have become owners rather unwillingly.

"The acute shortage of rental units has no doubt forced many families to buy homes, often at inflated prices and somewhat beyond their means, simply in order to obtain shelter," the report said.

State Commerce Agents Revoke Panhandle Gas Cut

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21—(P)—The State Commerce commission tonight ordered Illinois Power company to resume immediately full gas deliveries to 15 interruptible industrial users in Decatur, Champaign and Danville.

A 50 per cent cutback in gas furnished the industries went into effect yesterday morning. The reduction was ordered by the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline company from which Illinois Power draws its bulk supply.

The State commission acknowledged that its action brought it into conflict with the Federal Power commission, which by telegram advised Illinois Power to comply with the Panhandle directive.

The State commission's order to restore full service climaxed day long conferences and deliberations in which the commission decided to launch an extensive inquiry into the whole problem of gas supplies to industries served through the Panhandle system.

This decision was reached following a meeting with representatives of four distributing utilities and a dozen industrial users whose gas supplies had been restricted.

Spokesmen for the industries contended the cutback would cause extensive crop spoilage, unemployment and other economic losses.

In issuing tonight's order, Chairman John D. Biggs of the Commerce commission said:

"Illinois utilities are regulated by this commission and are required by the Illinois public utility act to furnish all of the service applied for by their customers."

EX-DEMO GOVERNOR SUPPORTS DEWEY

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—George H. Earle, former Democratic governor of Pennsylvania, today came out for the election of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, GOP candidate for president.

Earle, in a statement issued through the Republican national campaign headquarters, said the election of Dewey is "our best chance for peace."

Earle held high diplomatic posts during the administration of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Russians Revive Campaign To Oust Troops In Berlin

Berlin, Sept. 21—(P)—The Russians revived today their campaign for withdrawal of all occupation forces from Germany.

The Soviet-inspired press used Russia's announced intention of withdrawing her occupation forces from northern Korea as a springboard for the latest campaign.

The Russians have announced they planned to haul their troops out of Korea by some time in October. The Soviet-licensed press pointed to this and said Russia also wants to take her armed forces out of Germany, but the United States won't go along.

The reason, the papers said, is because America wants to convert her occupation zones into "colonies and armed bases for attack against the Soviet Union."

The Soviet press whooped up the drive on the front page despite the fact it already has had an answer from Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor.

Pam, 22 Months, Will Undergo First Operation

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—Pamela Lamphere, 22 months old child whose bladder is outside her body, will undergo the first of three operations to correct the condition tomorrow in the Cook county hospital.

"We reached the decision to operate tomorrow as we are satisfied that the child's health is at a maximum," said Dr. Karl A. Meyer, medical director of county institutions.

"The operation will be performed by Drs. Harry A. Oberhelman and John L. Keeley, of the Children's hospital, and I will act in an advisory capacity."

Superior Judge Walter R. O'Malley ordered the operations after the child's parents, Fred, 23, and Irene, 21, were unable to agree on what to do about Pamela's condition.

Warren Asks Ban On Agriculture As Campaign Issue

St. Louis, Sept. 21—(P)—Governor Earl Warren tonight called for removal of agriculture as a political campaign issue.

Coming to the heart of the mid-west farming belt, the republican vice-presidential candidate flouted time-honored political practice by declaring agricultural problems vital to the nation should be handled by "both political parties working together."

Also, he declared, the republicans are not the "pitchfork conspirators" which the democratic leadership has painted them.

St. Louis greeted Warren with a storm of confetti and ticker tape as the vice-presidential motorcade moved from union station to his hotel.

Members of the Warren party described the reception along downtown streets as the biggest so far of the cross-country campaign which began in California a week ago tomorrow.

Police estimated the crowd along the parade route between 50,000 and 75,000.

Warren's address, prepared for a republican rally at Kiel auditorium was a direct reply to President Truman's speech in Lexington, Ia.

Mr. Truman there told a farm audience that "Wall street reactionaries" and republican gluttons of privilege were ready to "let the bottom drop out of farm prices."

Senator Barkley Opens Speaking Tour In Delaware

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 21—(P)—Senator Alben W. Barkley, democratic vice presidential nominee, opened a nationwide speaking tour today with three Delaware speeches in which he stressed the democratic farm record.

Despite bad weather which drove him indoors at the first speech in Georgetown, the seventy year old party "wheelhorse" was greeted by large crowds in this republican agricultural state.

"It has been the democratic party that has initiated practically all the legislation in the history of United States for the benefit of farmers and agriculture," Barkley told an estimated 400 cheering listeners at Georgetown in heart of Delaware poultry section.

Statistics show he said, that farm income in Sussex county increased from $4,000,000 in 1932 to $85,000,000 last year, making it third wealthiest agricultural county east of Mississippi river.

"I don't give all the credit to democrats," he said, "but it certainly wasn't due to the republicans."

Democratic administrations, he said, started major farm programs such as rural electrification and soil conservation and kept them alive despite republican apathy.

12 INJURED IN CHICAGO BUS WRECK

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—Twelve persons were injured today in a collision of a Chicago Transit Authority bus and a trailer truck. The accident occurred at South Ashland ave. and 74th st.

Dewey Backs GOP Congress In Denver Campaign Talk

Denver, Sept. 21—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey tonight called for a brand new approach in saving America's natural resources to replace what he said was the Truman administration's careless policies.

The Republican candidate for president promised if he goes to the White House he will set up an administration "which really believes in conservation and development of our country for the future."

The New York Governor. In an address prepared for delivery at the Denver auditorium, defended the record of the GOP controlled 80th Congress on reclamation appropriations. He stuck back at President Truman's sharp criticism of the Republicans that score without mentioning the President by name.

Swinging through the west on a 14-day campaign tour, Dewey came into Denver close on Mr. Truman's heels. The democratic standard bearer had told a crowd of 2,500 persons at the state capitol grounds yesterday the Republicans were carrying on an "undercover sabotage of the west."

In his second major campaign speech Dewey expressed over and over his belief the Democrats have not properly handled the conservation program.

He said, for example, timber has been cut "at a tremendous rate of speed" and "now we must set about restoring the damage."

He added: "that's why we need to replace with a brand new approach and a comprehensive national program of conservation." At the outset of his address Dewey talked briefly about the foreign situation and noted the United Nations general assembly is in session in Paris.

"It faces more than a hundred serious problems affecting the peace of the world," Dewey continued. "To these there may be added action on the critical situation in Berlin."

He said the United States will make "an immense contribution" to the success of the Paris conference "by a mighty showing of the unity that binds us together."

Calling as he did in Des Moines last night for a foreign policy "which is both strong and consistent in its search for peace," Dewey said "it is my firm belief that our country should never again seem to wobble in foreign affairs so that dictators may think us weak and irresolute."

Stevenson Strikes Department Of Conservation

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 21—(P)—The Illinois Department of Conservation has become a "payroll refuge for politicians who think a rabbit is made of cheese and beer," Adlai E. Stevenson, democratic nominee for governor said tonight.

Governor Dwight H. Green promised to "take the conservation department out of politics," Stevenson said in a campaign speech prepared for delivery tonight at Decatur.

"I would challenge him to produce a single sportsman to say that this management of our forests and fish and game resources is not smothered in politics," said Stevenson.

The democratic candidate who opposes Green in the Nov. 2 general elections, said the state paid $4,000 an acre for land in the Wolf Lake area near Chicago. The land had been appraised by the Chicago real estate board at $350 to $400 an acre, he said.

Stevenson also cited the indictment of Republican State Representative Lyle Prosscott of Dixon on charges of attempting to defraud the state in connection with the sale of a piece of farm land to the Conservation department.

Fourth Of Men In Draft Age Are Eligible For Call

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—Of 438,606 persons who have registered for the draft in Illinois, 120,701 are unmarried non-veterans.

This was announced today by Col. Paul G. Armstrong, state director of selective service.

Downstate Illinois, including all counties except Cook, has 203,325 registrants, of whom 54,352 are single, non-veterans, presumably eligible for early draft call.

Chicago and the rest of Cook county has 235,281 registrants, of whom 66,349 are not married and have not previously served in the armed forces.

Extremist Group Smashed In Jewish Gang Crackdown

Jerusalem, Sept. 21—(P)—The Jewish extremist group, Irgun Zvai Leumi, accepted an ultimatum from the Israeli Government today and went out of business.

The dissolution of Irgun was ordered as the government continued its crackdown on the Stern gang, another but smaller Jewish underground organization.

The government smashed both forces in the wake of the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N. mediator, and his French aide, Lt. Col. Andre Serot, in Jerusalem Friday. Israeli authorities have blamed the Stern gang for the killing of Bernadotte and Serot.

Nearly 300 arrests have wrecked the Stern gang. Many of its leaders have fled. The Israeli ultimatum to Irgun Zvai Leumi ordered members of that organization to turn in their arms and enlist in the regular forces of the Jewish state.

World's Experts Review Safety Rules In Mines

Pittsburgh, Sept. 21—(P)—Studies of coal mine explosions in England, France and United States were reviewed today by about 100 mine safety experts from a half dozen nations.

American researchers for the U.S. Bureau of Mines told the fifth international conference of directors of mine safety research that bag-type rock dust protective devices are not as effective as had been thought.

F. V. Tidewell, principal scientific officer of the British Ministry of Fuel and Power, safety in mines research and testing branch, said that British experience indicates the need for revising dust standards.

Rene Saint Guilhem, technical director of the center of study and research of the coal mines of France, said couriers blast was caused by spontaneous heating of compressed air containing vapor from oil which had collected inside a compressor and pipes. The explosion killed 16 and injured 30 miners.

He added: "that's why we need to replace with a brand new approach and a comprehensive national program of conservation." At the outset of his address Dewey talked briefly about the foreign situation and noted the United Nations general assembly is in session in Paris.

"It faces more than a hundred serious problems affecting the peace of the world," Dewey continued. "To these there may be added action on the critical situation in Berlin."

He said the United States will make "an immense contribution" to the success of the Paris conference "by a mighty showing of the unity that binds us together."

Calling as he did in Des Moines last night for a foreign policy "which is both strong and consistent in its search for peace," Dewey said "it is my firm belief that our country should never again seem to wobble in foreign affairs so that dictators may think us weak and irresolute."

Purge Cook County Jail Staff After Prisoners Escape

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—Two officials and two guards were fired from the county jail staff today because of the escape Saturday of three prisoners.

Sheriff Elmer Michael Walsh said those discharged had been negligent in guarding against the break. Those dismissed are Arthur Shoberg and Mike Sabatello, assistant superintendents, and guards William Green and Walter Wade.

Two of the escapees were captured Sunday, but a third, Eddie (Putty Nose) Vick, 21, under sentence for robbery in a truck hijacking, is at large.

An anonymous phone call to the police department that Vick was slipping beers in a West Madison street tavern brought 10 squads of police in a hurry.

A thorough search of the tavern and the hotel upstairs failed to turn up either the fugitive or the informant.

Springfield Pastor Killed In Two-Car Crash

Stanton, Ill., Sept. 21—(P)—A Negro pastor was killed and nine other persons injured today in a two-car head-on collision on U.S. Route 66 one mile south of here.

The Rev. G. W. Smith, pastor for 18 years of New Hope Baptist church, Springfield, Ill., was killed instantly.

Injured occupants of the car with Mr. Smith, all Negroes, were:

The Rev. Anthony King, 66, retired pastor of Springfield Union Baptist church, critically hurt; his wife, Dora, and two of their grandchildren, Charles King, 4, and Vivian King, 7, all seriously hurt; Mrs. Marcella Kirk and her two daughters, Sandra Kay, 5, and Sharon, 3, all severely injured.

Occupants of the other car, Milton Litz, 31, University City, Mo., and Harry Schwarz of the Bensenville, Ill., also were injured.

All of the injured are being treated at St. Francis hospital, Litchfield, Ill.

Father Testifies Against Daughter In Court Fight

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—A father related a story of his 19 year old daughter's interest in a married grocery clerk today at a hearing on the petition of Mrs. Alice Rand de Tarnowsky McIntosh to gain the custody of her two minor children.

Mrs. McIntosh lost custody of her three children in a divorce battle four years ago. She seeks custody of the two youngest, George De Tarnowsky, 9, and Sandra, 7. The eldest child, Marie, is now of legal age.

The story of Marie's interest in the clerk was related by her father, Alexis De Tarnowsky, of suburban Kenilworth, an engineer, who gained custody of the children at the time he won the divorce on grounds of adultery.

Both Mrs. McIntosh and her present husband, Charles L. F. McIntosh, Muskegon, Mich., were present at the hearing before circuit judge Julius Miner.

Well Known Great Lakes Crew Coach Dies In Chicago

Great Lakes, Ill., Sept. 21—(P)—Alfred P. (Shoes) Sandus, 64, crew coach known to thousands of sailors who trained at Great Lakes in two world wars, died last night after a three day illness.

Sandus was reared on a Great Lakes sailing vessel and loved the sea life so much that loss of a leg in an accident could not keep him from ships and sailors. He had been a cobbler at the station since 1911 and trained "chippy" crews, men who man heavy lifeboats.

The veteran coach was reared aboard a two-masted boat owned by his father and survived a wreck at Charlevoix, Mich. After a career as a boxer he joined the navy in 1902 and was coxswain of the U. S. S. Alabama crew.

While serving aboard the U. S. S. Wisconsin in Australia, he was involved in a loading accident which necessitated amputation of a leg. He was retired from the navy but came back to the Great Lakes station as a cobbler. In addition to training crews he also coached several boxers. He retired two years ago and lived in nearby north Chicago.

FAULTY PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT RESULTS IN BOY'S DEATH

Algonquin, Ill., Sept. 21—(P)—Fred Zipperer, Jr., nine, was fatally injured today when a circular steel swing collapsed as he played on it.

Harry Ehorn, McHenry county coroner, said the steel pole supporting the movable portion of the swing broke at the base where it was weakened by rust. The pole hit the boy on the head.

The accident occurred in a school yard. Young Zipperer was rushed to the hospital in Elgin, but was dead upon arrival.

Report Citrus Fruit Crop In Storm's Path

By the Associated Press
Miami, Fla., Sept. 21—(AP)—A mighty hurricane that swept the Key West area with 125 mile an hour winds, passed inland west of Miami tonight.

The storm, which reached a velocity of 160 miles in gusts at Key West, spread gales into Miami and hurricane winds that reached 75 miles an hour or more.

Florida's multi-million dollar citrus crop was in the path of the storm which hit the mainland with full force near Everglades City, about 60 miles directly west of Miami. There was no immediate word from that town, a fishing village.

Communication Lines Out

Communication lines to the Florida Keys were knocked out by the terrific wind. Navy radio messages reported roofs blown from a number of Key West houses, the sinking of 30 privately owned boats and three feet of water flooding the east side of the island.

Only two minor casualties were reported in Key West. The navy said the highest winds of 160 miles an hour were recorded at Boca Chica Naval base, eight miles north of Key West.

Some Miami streets were flooded by driving rain and bay water tossed into them by the high winds. Damage in the city was limited to palm trees, power lines, unprotected windows and billboards.

Red Cross Evacuates Refugees

The Red Cross sent an evacuation train to the Lake Okechobee area to remove about 3500 persons to safer areas. Shelters were prepared for the refugees at Ebering, Avon Park, and Lake Placid. A second train was held in readiness to remove others in the lake area.

The storm headed in the direction of Lake Okechobee. Norton said its center may pass directly over the lake or just to the west of it.

"The hurricane is ever land now and it can be expected that it will lose force until it passes over water again," said Norton.

The immensely rich Florida citrus groves with millions of orange, grapefruit and tangerine trees apparently were in for a heavy tossing. Losses will run into millions of dollars if the citrus crop is hard hit.

Report Damage

Meantime the hurricane is wasting its force on cypress swamps and sawgrass.

Reports of damage already began to trickle in. All docks at Tavernier, midway down the Florida Keys, were reported washed away. A filling station at Modello, near Homestead, was blown across communications lines, knocking out the wires and two poles.

More than 130 persons were transferred from the George Washington Carver school and the South Miami Community house in the Miami area when the storm endangered them. The Red Cross declared the two shelters unsafe.

WE HAVE A RIGHT TO DEMAND EFFECTIVE USE OF RELIEF DOLLARS

An American industrialist says that local authorities in Europe are playing politics with American dollars and delaying the effectiveness of the European aid program. He is A. G. Bryant, president of the National Tool Builders Association, who is just back from two months in England and Europe.

Mr. Bryant charges that too many dollars are going into immediate relief and too few into recovery, as specifically represented in the purchase of machine tools. European industrialists can buy American equipment only after national authorities have allocated ECA dollars to them, he says. But the authorities are not releasing dollars for that purpose. Thus manufacturers must buy machine tools in non-dollar countries where plants are swamped with orders, deliveries are slow, and the products, says Mr. Bryant, are frequently inferior or unsuitable.

Mr. Bryant, of course, has a specialized and perhaps limited interest in the recovery program. And the story of ECA dollar allocation is not simple. Nevertheless, his critical report seems sound and worth the attention of European aid officials on both sides of the Atlantic.

Direct relief in Europe is still necessary. But it cannot be denied that direct relief is not very productive economically, however urgent its need. After more than three years of peace, the Marshall Plan countries must start building their economic future on the solid ground of maximum production and reasonable prices.

Machine tools are the roots from which industrial production grows. Bomb damage, over-use and neglect have undoubtedly left this equipment in Europe in a sorry and inadequate state. It would seem essential, as Mr. Bryant points out, that manufacturers in American-aid countries have a free choice of the machine tools they want, based on their particular needs and not on political consideration.

Politics is perhaps not the whole story of this dollar dilemma. There have been disagreements, first among the participating governments and later within the U. S. government, over which countries should get how many dollars, and for what. Thus all available funds are not yet allocated. Still, it is easy to see how politics would enter the picture.

Whatever all the complex reasons may be behind this industrial bottleneck, the fact remains, as Mr. Bryant tells us, that European distributors have placed $150,000,000 worth of orders for American machine tools which as yet have not received official approval. Meanwhile the British machine tool industry is a year and a half behind in its deliveries, while American firms can supply "normal" delivery of two or three months.

Now that the disagreeing European governments have turned the task of dollar allocations back to America's ECA officials, it might be possible to get some action. If this requires suggestions that some would delight in calling "interference," American efforts to relieve the bottleneck would undoubtedly be for the good of all.

Europe cannot recover its economic health without high industrial production. And industry cannot produce without adequate tools. At the same time, the American people have every right to demand that their unprecedented gift of dollars be used not only humanely, but as wisely and effectively as possible.

12 Leading Doctors Complete Study of Rheumatism, Arthritis

In a 48 page booklet, a committee of 12 of the nation's leading doctors have issued a complete report of their study of rheumatism and arthritis, covering a period of many months of medical research. From their findings a formula for the quick relief of rheumatic pain was developed by a well-known pharmacist.

This formula, called Ru-Tel was first tested by physicians, hospitals and clinics and has achieved remarkable results in relieving the pain of rheumatism, arthritis and neuritis. They found that Ru-Tel Tablets are pleasant to take, do not upset the stomach—in most cases give quick, soothing relief, sometimes overnight. Now, these Ru-Tel Tablets are available, without prescription through all drug stores. First bottle must help or your money refunded.

Be Sure To Register If You Want To Vote

Make certain that you are properly registered before the state and national election on Nov. 2.

That is the friendly warning of public officials and leaders of all political parties. You must be registered to vote for county, state and national candidates when the big day rolls around.

County Clerk George T. Douglas is carrying on a day-to-day job in registration at his office, where a large number of voters have called to make changes in their voting status. Twenty thousand cards were sent out from the clerk's office several weeks ago in effort to bring the registration lists up to date. A number of these are now being returned with revised addresses and other necessary information.

This has been called for the expressed purpose of introducing the parents to the materials of the new curriculum which are to begin in the school in October.

Invitations have been given to the parents through the church office and again through the teachers in the school. The parents with their children are expected to arrive about 6:30 p.m. with their own dish or food preparation. All the food will be served cafeteria style and more than enough should be on hand to serve the large group. Family groups are asked to bring their own service for the table. Coffee will be provided.

The evening's program will be a display of fine new materials with proper explanation by the church school superintendent, Ted Fairburn. The parents will then go to individual classes in which their children are enrolled where they will receive instructions in the correct use of the materials from the following who are acting as faculty of the school as well as the conference: Mrs. Ted Fairburn, Mrs. Jerry Copeland, Mrs. Leavitt Arnold, Mrs. William Randall, Miss Lucille Barnhart, Mrs. Margaret Raymond, Mrs. Maryellen Cannon Worrell, Mrs. Harriet Willard and Dr. Robert Herr.

At the present time the materials are available for youth classes only and the four adult classes of the church school will continue on with the materials now in service.

On Rally Day, which is next Sunday, all the new materials will be formally presented to the teachers who will in turn place them in the hands of the students.

Putting into practice the sound methods of soil conservation recommended for Morgan County farms pays—in profits which may range from 20% to more than double the amounts received under the old methods.

University of Illinois records show that on 64 farms having less than 3% slope, corn yields were increased 9.6 bushels per acre by contouring alone. Of course, contouring is just one of the many practices that should be included in a good soil conservation program.

Braves Beat Cards Twice; Flag In Sight

Boston, Sept. 21.—(P)—The Braves debut tonight as the Philadelphia Phillies won the second game of the day-night doubleheader 6-1. The Reds took the daytime game 6-5 on eighth-inning hits by Frankie Baumholtz and Steve Filipowicz.

The Braves could win their first pennant in 34 years tomorrow; all that is needed is a Boston victory over the Cardinals and a Pittsburgh triumph over second place Brooklyn.

A victory tomorrow would give the Braves 87 triumphs against 56 losses and they would have eight games to play. One game has been cancelled.

Should the Dodgers lose tomorrow they would have 79 victories and 67 losses with eight games left.

Then even if the Braves lost all remaining eight while Brooklyn won all eight the Braves would finish the season in first place by a half game.

Blue Devils Show Ten Lettermen On First Team

Quincy — (Special) — The Blue Devils of Quincy high school will go after their second win in three starts when they meet the Jacksonville high school griders at Jacksonville Friday night.

Coach George Latham is expected to start the same lineup which brought the Blue Devils a 6-0 win over Fort Madison in the season opener here and absorbed a 25-7 setback against the Knights of St. Ambrose Academy in Davenport Saturday night.

Other backs most likely to see action include Jerry Allen, Bob Gordon, Joe Humpheys, Merle Jacobs, Dean Macris, Junior Priepot. Other linemen who may get into the fray are Bill Becktel, Maurice Grider, Bill Graham, Monzell Jackson, Buca Mullins, Oliver Oliver, Don Teaney, Darrell Voss.

Coach Latham is well pleased with the showing of his club, but plans intensive work this week to iron out some weaknesses shown in the first two games.

Two new coaches, Dale Hendren and Sid Gerstein, are assisting the Blue Devil mentor this year.

Jacksonville Grid Outfits Undergo Workouts Tuesday

Work on the tackling dummy and charging sled plus a long session of scrimmage between the first and second teams was the order of the day Tuesday as Coach Art Yates sent his Jacksonville School for the Deaf griders through another long workout.

The scrimmage was held on the playing field under regular game conditions.

Jacksonville high school coach Bob Kraushaar was handicapped in Tuesday afternoon's practice by the absence of three backfield performers, Gene Todd, Charlie Runkel and Bob Orris.

The J.H.S. mentor spent considerable time working on goal-line offense and defense, with first one team and then the other taking the ball from 10 or 15 yards out.

Coach Al Miller of Illinois College was busy Tuesday afternoon giving his first team a hard workout on offense. The Blueboys spent considerable time on kicking and passing.

A short practice was held Tuesday morning, but two hard workouts are slated today before the hilltoppers begin to taper off prior to the Scott Field game Saturday afternoon.

Several new players reported Tuesday and were given light equipment to begin conditioning exercises.

Cerdan Knocks Out Zale In 12th Round

Notre Dame Jinxed With Injuries
South Bend, Ind., Sept. 21.—(P)—The injury jinx struck the Notre Dame backfield again today.

Halfback Terry Brennan, still slowed up by an old knee injury, suffered a cut over the left eye requiring three stitches. He probably will see only limited duty against Purdue next Saturday.

The Irish held a long pass defense drill today, with Purdue's Bo. De Moss in mind.

Purdue Looks To Notre Dame
Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 21.—(P)—Purdue wound up contact preparation for the Notre Dame game Saturday with a final scrimmage session today.

"It's foolish to say that we'd beat Notre Dame," Coach Stu Holcomb said, "but it's a certainty that this squad won't be scared."

Indiana Works On Defense
Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 21.—(P)—Indiana's football squad, still defying the injury jinx, hustled through another rugged defensive drill today.

Sophomore Milan Sellers of Barabert, Ohio, still filled in for the veteran Harry (Chick) Jagade as a line-backer.

Center Joe Polce, served as Seller's partner and gave Coach Clyde Smith new confidence with a fine performance, particularly against running plays.

Eliot Juggles Illini Line
Champaign, Ill., Sept. 21.—(P)—Coach Ray Eliot juggled his Illinois football squad today, sending veteran tackle Bob Prymski to the second team and bringing up Lyle Butten to the first.

The Illini varsity has appeared ragged in recent drills and Eliot has been making changes in an effort to pep things up. His starting lineup against Kansas State Saturday still is uncertain.

Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City, N.J., Sept. 21.—(P)—Marcel Cerdan, a terrible, punishing little fighter from French Morocco, beat Tony Zale into a state of utter helplessness tonight and won the world middleweight championship while the iron man from Gary, Ind., sat glassy-eyed on his stool.

Referee Paul Cavalier looked at the 34-year-old Tony as his seconds worked frantically over him between the 11th and 12th rounds, and spread his hands in a gesture which told 25,000 fans in the stadium that it was all over—that the title had changed hands.

For 11 rounds Zale, who rewon the 160-pound crown only last June in Newark, N.J., from Rocky Graziano, had taken cruel, numbing punishment from the tireless Cerdan. He had won only two rounds, and had been beaten mercilessly.

Just as the bell sounded to end the 11th round, Zale sank to his knees, his eyes unseeing as Cerdan returned to his corner. Tony's seconds virtually carried him to his stool, and it was apparent that he would require a miracle to send him out for the next round.

Cavalier's gesture of mercy ended a reign that began when Zale defeated George Abrams for the undisputed middleweight title back in November, 1941. Graziano took the crown from Zale in Chicago in '47 but lost it back to the former sailor in Newark.

A moment after it ended the ring was hip-deep in Fernchen, the first of them intent upon being the first to plant a kiss on the bruised cheeks of the new champion.

Marcel, looking almost fresh, stood and grinned and took it big. Zale, the picture of a beaten gladiator, sat dejectedly, staring at the canvas during the wild celebration.

It was his second defeat in 18 fights since he returned from the Navy. The other loss was his knockout by Graziano in Chicago.

Hold Widower Of 'Black Dahlia' For Auto Larceny

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(P)—A restaurant hand who claims to be the widower of the "Black Dahlia," was held to the grand jury under $2,500 bond today on a charge of automobile larceny.

He is Joseph Dumais, 31, a counter man and former carnival worker. At his arraignment before Judge Irwin B. Clorfene in auto theft court, Dumais insisted the car in which he was found riding was lent to him by a Morris Drone with whom he said he has an appointment in Sanford, N. C. next week.

Police Sgt. Francis Plunkett said the automobile is owned by Daniel J. Harrington of Detroit, Mich., and was stolen in Chicago, Sept. 2.

Dumais told police he and Eunice Fortune, also known as Elizabeth Short, the "Black Dahlia," were married in Hudson, N. H., Jan. 1, 1937, and later were divorced. She was slain in Los Angeles Jan. 15, 1947. Her slayer has not been captured.

UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES IN INITIAL MEETING

They accepted the invitation of a Peoria member of the board, Kenney E. Williamson, to hold a regular session at the Peoria Country club.

John R. Fornoff, Stretcher newspaper publisher, will preside.

Eliot Displeased With '48 Illini; Works Team Hard

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 21.—Hard work and plenty of it were Coach Ray Eliot's early-week orders as his 1948 Illinois football squad made final preparations for the season's opener at 2 p.m. (CDT) Saturday against Kansas State in Memorial Stadium.

Despite the fact the varsity racked up a 58-0 verdict over freshmen in a resumption of that traditional battle last Saturday, Eliot was not encouraged.

"Our blocking was not sharp, the backs showed no pep, and in general it was a disappointing effort. The big score can easily be accounted for since the freshmen have had little practice and were working with offensive and defensive pattern which largely were new to them," Eliot said.

"We're going to see this week what members of our squad want to play Western Conference football and those are the boys who'll be in there Saturday against Kansas State."

Chief encouraging note from Saturday's game was running of halfbacks Paul Patterson and Sam Piazza. Patterson had the ball just five times and totaled 124 yard average, setting up two touchdowns with long springs.

Piazza, a sophomore from Chicago Heights, was hardest-working ball carrier of the afternoon, totting seven times for 84 yards, an average of 12. His quick starts and shiftness were impressive and it's evident that he will get plenty of work.

Kersulis, Valek Impressive
In the line, Walt Kersulis continued to work effectively at right end as did Jim Valek. Probably in the regular campaign Kersulis will work this spot offensively, with Valek handling defensive assignments.

Merle Schlosser, junior from LeRoy, showed well in the frosh game and may be promoted at left end this week. At present Tony Kilmek, Chicago rates as No. 1 and Sam Zatkoff No. 2.

Eliot was disappointed in the work of his guards and tackles, positions on which the Illinois coach's troubles center. Only Bob Prymski at starting role, with a half-dozen candidates rated about on a par for the other tackle position and the guard spots.

SHORT COVERING IN CORN HIKES PRICES DAILY 8c LIMIT

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(P)—Urgent short covering in September corn sent that delivery up the daily 8 cent limit at the Board of Trade today. Other deliveries sagged.

At the start of today's trading the open interest in September corn was placed at 11,365,000 bushels. Trading in all September deliveries ended with the close of tomorrow's session.

Trades in wheat could not find anything to stimulate action, and dealings in oats were not heavy with prices generally holding fractionally under yesterday's close.

Receipts were: wheat 35cars, corn 84, oats 26, soybeans 5.

At the finish corn was 8 cents higher to 1/2 lower than yesterday's close, September $1.771-1. Wheat was 1/2 to 1/4 lower, September $2.244.

XXVIII
They missed her at Nuns Farthing, of course, by tea time. Hilary heard them calling her in the garden, in the passage, and began to wonder too. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Pilton came up and looked in at his door, to see if Sabrina had fallen asleep up there. With one inscrutable glance round the empty room, she closed the door and went away again.
A little later he went out and sat on his stairs, listening. While he sat there, shamelessly waiting to eavesdrop, Aunt Effie came upstairs and went into Sabrina's room. In a few minutes she came out again and hurried downstairs towards the study. Hilary followed to the top of the lower flight.
"Alan! Alan!" cried Aunt Effie at the study door. "Her dressing case is gone, and her toilet things! She packed them up! She's run away! Now will you ring up the police at Wells and give them a description? Say we'll be there directly after dinner. I'll go and bring the car round now."
Packed a bag and bolted, wondered Hilary, beginning to be concerned.
He hung about the stairhead while they ate a hasty and unhappy meal, and before they had finished he ran down through the lower hall and got into the rumble seat of the waiting car.
In a few minutes they came out. Aunt Effie took her place behind the wheel, and they drove away.
The hood was down, and fragments of their conversation floated back to Hilary on the road. Aunt Effie blamed herself for not leading up more persuasively to the matter of the school in Switzerland, and reiterated her intention to get Sabrina out of the house as soon as possible. Hilary was enlightened. Threatened with school against her will, Sabrina had run away.
THE police station at Wells was only mildly concerned about Sabrina's mysterious disappearance. They took the viewpoint that a girl of nearly 18 who had calmly packed a bag and walked out in broad daylight with at least two pounds in her purse was not in any immediate danger. They were pretty sure that she had not been seen at the railway station and she was not at any of the hotels, but they were making further inquiries and would probably have something to report in the morning. They advised Aunt Effie to go home and get some rest and be prepared to come and collect the girl when she turned up safe and sound the next day.
Baffled and silenced by the bland efficiency of the law, Aunt Effie and Father returned to the car and drove away in the direction of Nuns Farthing. But without Hilary. He was far from satisfied, and he meant to drift round the railway station and a bar or two, picking up local gossip.
He went first to the Swan, which was probably the only hotel Sabrina was likely to know about in Wells, and when the manager's back was turned he inspected the register, but without success. He glanced into the dining room and the lounge and as he expected drew blank. He then went down the road and the social scale and finally fetched up in a pub bar where a dart game was in progress.
Various ancient had grown gregarious over their mild and bitter, and the entry of a constable just came off duty was greeted with a small stir. Had the missing young lady been found, they wanted to know. No, she had not.
"I saw me, I did," volunteered an old boy in the corner with a bubbling pipe.
"Did you, now?" said the constable, humoring him. "Where would that be?"
"PRETTY creature she were, too," mumbled the old man into his beer. "Nigh broke her neck, she did, gettin' on the bus. Luggin' a great 'eavy bag like that."
"What bus?" said Hilary involuntarily, drawing nearer.
"How do you know so much about it?" inquired the constable.
"Erbert, 'ere, were down at the railway station. 'E 'eard 'em asking about people takin' tickets fer London an' that. I said, 'No London in it,' I said. 'She took the bus fer Glastonbury,' I said. So 'Erbert said—"
"How was she dressed, this girl you saw?" The constable was interested now.
"Might be somethin' blue," said old Tom with nonchalance, and buried his face in his beer. "Pretty creature," he added, half emerging. "But wants fattenin'—"
"He disappeared again into his beer."
"That's right," Carrying a bag-Glastonbury bus. Well, no harm in letting them know at the station."
But Hilary had slipped out the door ahead of him and was hurrying towards the square where the last bus for Glastonbury was loading. He waited on the curb till his gears went home, and then swung on through the open back door and dropped into a seat near the rear.
It was quite dark when they got to Glastonbury, and the Pillgrim Inn was dim and quiet. He walked into the deserted hall, and with a quick glance round stepped into the office and sought the register. The last signature of the day amused him. Mary Smith, he read, and beside it, No. 27.
Still smiling, he went upstairs and found the number on a door and listened. Not a sound. He walked through the painted wooden panels.
Sabrina was asleep in the tumbled bed, one fragile arm outflung.

Sangamon Pastor Talks At MacMurray Chapel

On Mac Faculty

Mrs. Sarah H. Paton is a new instructor in the department of business administration at MacMurray College. Mrs. Paton holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Nebraska and a master of science degree from Northwestern University.

Dr. A. Ray Grummon, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Springfield, addressed students and faculty of MacMurray College at the first weekly chapel of the college year held at Grace Methodist Church Tuesday morning. The speaker was introduced by Dean Dyringer, who conducted the worship service.

Taking as his subject "A Philosophy of Life," Dr. Grummon brought to the students his conviction that we need a philosophy to furnish guideposts along the road of living. "I don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way," he said. "I always felt that to be an irresponsible approach to life."

Four Road Signs
Dr. Grummon then listed four philosophic principles which he felt to be worthy and reliable guideposts. First, he said, we must emphasize the things that are pleasant, and count our "haves" rather than our "have-nots." Second, we must work for what we desire, work persistently, day in and day out.

"If we get anywhere or anything in life, we must make a constant effort," he stated. "And don't depend on some one else to pull out of difficulties; learn to solve your own problems. This matter of work is of the most far-reaching importance. My fear of Russia is not the usual one; I am afraid only that the Russians will outwork us."

Common Good Essential
But we must not allow our work to make us oblivious to the needs of others, he warned. "The third guidepost is social-mindedness. We must cast off our garment of self-centeredness and care for the common good."

The fourth guidepost named by Dr. Grummon was trust in God. "God has placed in this world boundless sources of unsuspected power," he told the students, "and we must tap these sources. It is our business to do as well as we can the things that need to be done, and when we seem to face defeat, God will intervene with the necessary power if we trust Him."

Music for the occasion was furnished by Wilbur Sheridan, organist, and Miss Lucille Haney, mezzo-soprano, of the faculty.

Amvets To Manage Special Camp For Delinquent Youth

The Amvets launched a program of juvenile rehabilitation by accepting the responsibility of maintaining Pine Lake camp, located 15 miles south of Little Rock, Ark. Delegates to the national convention voted unanimously to accept the gift offered by Mrs. R. G. LeTourneau, wife of the industrialist.

The camp was formerly the Shriner's Country club. It has spacious native stone buildings able to house 150 boys, a 20-acre lake and more than 400 acres of rolling hills, woods and farm land.

"A Christian Camp"
C. P. Siegfried, a delegate of the Jacksonville chapter, said the organization plans to operate the place "as a Christian camp for boys 14 to 20 who have been in minor trouble, or who seem headed for trouble."

"It is not a corrective institution nor a home. There is no stigma attached. A boy will go to Pine Lake camp only because he wants to," Mr. Siegfried said.

The present rehabilitation center will operate on a work, instruction, recreation and religious program. Training will be on an individual basis. Minimum attendance has been set at two months, but will usually run from four to six months. The stay will depend largely upon the boy's need, his willingness to help himself and the rapidity with which he learns and adjusts.

Upon release a "big brother," an Amvet in his home town, will be chosen to help him re-establish himself in his own community.

Resolutions Adopted
Among resolutions adopted at the convention included requests for legislation enabling all hospitalized veterans to purchase tax free tobacco, to grant old age veterans pensions to veterans of all wars and a housing resolution similar to the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill provide that any veteran who does not take the educational provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights be given the same monetary value toward the purchase of a home.

The Amvets also adopted a uniform of forest green with an Eisenhower style jacket and overseas cap.
